

Lunch & Learn

At Capital Credit Union, we take pride in enhancing financial literacy and education in the communities we serve. That's why we're proud to offer four Lunch & Learn sessions during North Dakota State Employee Appreciation Month.

- Wednesday, Sept. 4, 12-1 p.m., side room in the Capitol Café:
Why Your Credit Score is Important & Factors that Affect It,
presented by Dustin Bitz. To RSVP, please visit capcu.org/RSVP.
RSVPs are due the Friday before the session.
- Wednesday, Sept. 11, 12-1 p.m., side room in the Capitol Café:
How to Protect Yourself Against Identity Theft, Fraud & Scams,
presented by Dustin Bitz. To RSVP, please visit capcu.org/RSVP.
RSVPs are due the Friday before the session.
- Wednesday, Sept. 18, 12-1 p.m., side room in the Capitol Café:
Retirement Basics: Save Today & Enjoy Tomorrow, presented by John Weis. To RSVP, please visit capcu.org/RSVP.
RSVPs are due the Friday before the session.
- Wednesday, Sept. 25, 12-1 p.m., DOT building, 3rd floor conference room:
Consumer Loans 101: From Application to Funding, presented by Dustin Bitz.
To RSVP, please visit www.dot.nd.gov/LunchAndLearn.htm.
RSVPs are due the Friday before the session.

John Weis
Capital Credit Union
CFS Financial Representative

Dustin Bitz
Vice President of Member Services &
Certified Credit Union Financial Counselor

